

Please do not repeal Indiana's No Call policy. I am a senior citizen and have been bombarded in the past with calls from vendors trying to sell me something and at times they get very rude requiring me to be impolite and hang up the phone. I get very few calls now that the No Call is in effect and it is removed it would be a waste of mine and the callers time since I will NEVER purchase from a telemarketer.

Paul J Pool